My uncles' houses

Isn't it strange that two brothers can be so different? I've got two uncles – Uncle Jack and Uncle Tom. Everything about them is different, including their homes.

Uncle Jack lives in a very small, wooden house. There are only two rooms in it – a bedroom and a kitchen. The bedroom has a bed, a small desk and a chair. In the kitchen there's a little cooker and a sink – but nothing else. There isn't even a fridge! Uncle Jack's milk and cheese are outside. And where's the toilet? Well, that's also outside ... (Don't ask!)

Now, Uncle Tom's house is very different. It's big, as you can see from the picture. There are five bedrooms and three bathrooms. Uncle Tom likes having visitors! The living room is really big and has three comfortable sofas. My favourite room is the kitchen – there are three fridges! And everything is clean and tidy.

So, which house do I prefer? Well, I really like both of them for different reasons!

What's your dream home? House or apartment?
Big or small? In the country or in the city?

REPLY

Reply from JackCoco_18 on March 18 at 10.10 a.m.

My dream home is a house near the beach.
It's very big and it's very modern.

Use and to connect similar ideas.

Write facts about yourself.

Say where things are in your home.

- Downstairs, there's a green living room.
- (Green is my favourite colour!) There's a really big television in the living room and a comfortable sofa for me and my friends. There are lots of bookcases – I like books!
- Upstairs, there are five bedrooms. One of the bedrooms is for my friend, Al. In my bedroom, there's a very big window. I can see the sea from my bedroom. I've got a really comfortable double bed. There are lots of cool trainers under the bed!
- Outside, there's a garden. It's small but it's very nice. There are lots of flowers.

Use adjectives to describe the home.

Use but to contrast ideas.
